

Diploma in International Trade

Learning Outcome

On completion of the course the participants will understand the International Trade environment, learn the roles of the various participants and most importantly acquire the skills of evaluating the risks of international trade finance and the methods of mitigation these risks resulting in better decisions and control of international trade financing.

Key Areas

| | |
|----------|---|
| Module 1 | The international trade environment |
| Module 2 | The mechanics of international trade finance |
| Module 3 | The supply chain in international trade and the role played by the various participants |
| Module 4 | International Trade Finance and Management of Risk |
| Module 5 | Workshop on international trade operations |

Participants

Banking professionals including the staff handling International Trade operations

Import export managers in Corporate sector

Legal professionals

Students who intends to peruse banking as career

Duration

96 Hours

Methodology

Lectures, Presentations, Exercises and Case Studies

Medium

English

Commencement

27.03.2021

Course Fee

Rs. 28,000

Medium

English